Health insurance for restored employees

Employees improperly removed or suspended, upon reinstatement, may at their option, enroll as if they were new employees or have their coverage restored, with appropriate adjustments made for contributions and claims. This make-whole remedy is governed by 5 U.S.C. § 8908 and CSC regulations contained in paragraph S8-5, Federal Personnel Manual Supplement 890-2, Instruction 34, dated September 24, 1973. B-180021, March 20, 1975.

Government life insurance for restored employees

Employees improperly removed or suspended upon reinstatement are deemed to have been insured during the period. However, deductions otherwise required by law shall not be withheld from any backpay awarded for the period unless death or accidential dismemberment of the employee occurs during such period. This make-whole remedy is governed by 5 U.S.C. § 8706(f) and CSC regulations contained in paragraph S4-23, Federal Personnel Manual Supplement 870-1, Instruction 14, dated September 12, 1973. B-180021, March 20, 1975.

Employment discrimination

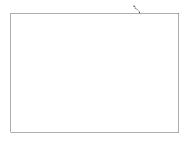

The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, 42 U.S.C. § 2000-16, provides make-whole remedies for individuals where Federal agencies have taken discriminatory action against them with respect to employment opportunities, compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, hiring or discharge because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. There are some significant differences between the remedies provided in the Back Pay Act of 1966 and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 which have a bearing on the extent to which employees are made whole. In some respects remedies under the Equal Employment Opportunity Act are broader, in that remedies are provided for applicants for employment as well as employees and expungement of records is also allowed. However, backpay under the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 is to be computed in the same manner as prescribed for the Back Pay Act of 1966 in 5 C.F.R. § 550.804. The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, in contrast to the Back Pay Act of 1966 limits the period of retroactivity for which backpay is permitted to 2 years from the date the action is brought. B-180021, March 20, 1975.

CIVILIAN PERSONNEL LAW MANUAL Title 1 - Compensation Office of General Counsel U.S. General Accounting Office The endy problem that arises in the informal adjustment agreed to by the Complainant and the Agency is that of the length of retroactive period of back pay. The General Accounting Office Civilian Personnel Law Manual, the Code of Federal Regulations (29 CFR 1613,271 (b)(1)), and U.S. Code Annotated (42 USCA 2000e-5(g)) indicate a limit of two years bak pay dating from the date of the complaint. INXXMXSXEMSXX Mr. Thomas Douglass, Technical Guidance Division, EEOC (634-6855) confirmed that this is correct even in the use of an informal adjustment. Thus, in this case rather than back pay for the entire period 3 March 1978 - 13 October 1981, back pay could only be paid for the period 11 November 1979 - 10 November 1981. (10 November 1981 was the date the complaint was initiated.)

The informal adjustment should be so amended and a personnel action reflecting the amended dates be effected.
